

31 MAY 2018 – PRESS RELEASE

INFRAVIA INVESTS IN ACUTE HEALTHCARE INFRASTRUCTURE IN IRELAND THROUGH THE ACQUISITION OF MATER PRIVATE

InfraVia today announces the signing of an agreement to acquire Mater Private hospital group. The business will be acquired from a fund sponsored by HarbourVest Partners which is managed by CapVest

Mater Private is the leading acute healthcare infrastructure group in Ireland and currently operates two major acute hospitals, in Dublin and Cork, two advanced Cancer Centres in Limerick and Liverpool and a number of out-patient clinics in various locations throughout Ireland. Since inception in 1986, Mater Private has offered some of the most technologically advanced treatment options for patients and has pioneered many major innovative developments in the delivery of healthcare in Ireland. Supported by over 300 leading consultants, Mater Private offers patients from all over the country the highest standards of care.

Vincent Levita, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of InfraVia, declared: “Mater Private is the leading healthcare infrastructure group in Ireland. The company has a fantastic reputation for quality and is focused in some of the highest areas of need, in particular, cardiology, oncology and orthopaedics. We look forward to working with Mater Private’s staff, consultants and management as a long-term partner to help Mater Private continue to develop as a leading healthcare group and to be at the forefront of providing the most advanced treatments to patients.”

Commenting on the transaction the Chief Executive of Mater Private, John Hurley, said: “We are looking forward to partnering with InfraVia to support the next phase of our growth. Working with InfraVia will allow us to develop our facilities and services and significantly expand our services to meet the needs for Ireland growing population.”

The transaction is subject to regulatory approval.

Barclays (financial), LK Shields (legal), Clifford Chance (legal finance) and PwC (accounting, commercial and tax) advised InfraVia on the transaction. Barclays has underwritten debt facilities to support the acquisition.
