OREIMA REINFORCES ITS INVESTMENT CAPABILITIES

Appointment of Pierre Leocadio as Investment Director

Paris, 07/04/2025

OREIMA, the real estate arm of InfraVia, is pleased to announce the appointment of Pierre Leocadio as Investment Director. This arrival will reinforce OREIMA's investment capabilities and support its ambition to accelerate growth.

Pierre joins a team of 14 headed by Brigitte Sagnes-Dupont, Executive Chairwoman, and will focus on strengthening OREIMA's investment capabilities, capitalizing on its network and strong experience to identify, seize and execute investment opportunities.

Before joining OREIMA, Pierre has worked at Oxford Properties since 2014, based in Paris and London, where he gained solid investment experience across several key real estate asset classes, including office, retail, and logistics, and in European markets across France, UK and Germany. He has managed a portfolio of office and retail worth €4.5 billion and led the opening of the Oxford Properties office in Paris.

OREIMA aims to accelerate its growth by strengthening its capabilities in investment and value creation, reinforcing its local and international network, and leveraging the resources of InfraVia's broader platform.

Brigitte Sagnes-Dupont, Executive Chairwoman of OREIMA, said "The entire team at OREIMA is excited about Pierre's arrival, as it marks a significant step in the company's development. His extensive investment expertise and experience in forging partnerships with leading financial investors will be key in supporting our growth ambitions."
